

IEW Week 14

Page 129 - read with class

The #3 -ly Adverb opener: An easy way to do this if you're having a hard time coming up with a sentence, is to create a sentence with an -LY adverb, and then move the adverb to the beginning of the sentence.

For example: The children (quickly) built a snowman. Change it to: Quickly, the children built a snowman.

Practice - USE PAGE 119 OF SRN - bright pink- FOR IDEAS:

_____(yearly) _____, John D. Rockefeller celebrated the anniversary of landing his first job.

_____(famously)_____, Carnegie wrote that "the man who dies rich dies disgraced".

(...the Carnegie dictum. It called for individuals to spend the first third of one's life getting all the education one can, to then spend the next third making all the money one can, and finally to spend the last third giving it all away for worthwhile causes.)

_____(proudly)_____, Cornelius Vanderbilt made a profit off the California gold rush.

Comma Guideline - read and discuss
